

O, what a difference.™

WWW.RUTHERFOORD.COM

RUTHERFOORD
RISK MANAGEMENT AND INSURANCE PROFESSIONALS

Trends in Building Green

Effective Strategies for Existing Buildings and the Federal Stimulus Package

A seminar sponsored by:

RUTHERFOORD
RISK MANAGEMENT AND INSURANCE PROFESSIONALS

National Capital Region

Healthy Buildings International, Inc.

IAQ Consulting Excellence Since 1980

WATT, TIEDER, HOFFAR
& FITZGERALD, L.L.P.®

SCHEDULE

U.S. Green Building Council

Thomas C. Mawson, CAE

Executive Director, National Capital Region Chapter

2009 LEED Rating System Changes and their Impact on Property Owners and Developers

Watt, Tieder, Hoffar & Fitzgerald, L.L.P.

Chris Cheatham, LEED AP

Associate

Getting Green From the Recovery Package

Healthy Buildings International, Inc.

Richard M. Silberman

Chief Executive Officer

Earning the Ventilation-Related Credits Within LEED-NC

EMO Energy Solutions

Eric M. Oliver, PE, CEM, LEED-AP

President

Looking for Energy Savings In All The Right Places

Tangible Software Solutions, Inc.

Bobby C. Christian

President

Simplifying Energy – Buy. Use. Manage.

We invite you to attend our
*Trends in Building Green – Effective Strategies for Existing Buildings and the Federal Stimulus Package
Seminar*

National Rural Electric Cooperative Association
A LEED Certified Building
4301 Wilson Boulevard
Arlington, Virginia 22203

Tuesday, March 3, 2009

9:00 AM - 12:00 Noon

Continental breakfast served at 8:30 AM compliments of Windows Catering.

Please share this invitation with those in your company who may be interested in attending.

Seating is limited, so please R.S.V.P. by Friday, February 27th to:
Nancy Shipley at (703) 813-6575 or nancy.shipley@rutherfordord.com